Children's Technology Workshop Official Opening Ceremony

Kuala Lumpur, 17 November 2007 – The Children's Technology Workshop (CTWorkshop) created a buzz at the official opening ceremony of their new HQ in Bangsar. The new workshop at Bangsar Village 1 (First Floor, near Toys 'r' Us, Gymboree and MPH) is a state-of-the-art venue that occupies an area of 1,200 sq. ft., with materials and software brought in exclusively from Canada.

During the opening ceremony, officiated by the Canadian High Commissioner to Malaysia, HE David G. Summers, a multimedia presentation showcased CTWorkshop programs and samples of kids' work, such as Animation videos and games developed by them. This year marks the 50th anniversary of diplomatic relations between Canada and Malaysia, and CTWorkshop is proud to have made a contribution to both educational and trade ties.

CTWorkshop is a unique creative technology program which aims to channel kids' interest in technology into constructive and creative activities, covering Animation, Digital Art, Engineering & Robotics and Video Game Creation. CTWorkshop also offers extra-curricular activities at selected leading schools, including Alice Smith, the Australian International School, ELC, Garden International School, ISKL, Mont Kiara International School, SK Bukit Damansara, Sekolah Sri KDU and The Children's House.

Some of the current Opening highlights are the Whizard's Pass, which gives kids unlimited entry to ALL Weekly Workshop Clubs! Any time, any day, any class at only RM150 per month (RM120 for Members). With school holidays round the corner, our famous school holiday program, iCamp™, is back for November and December, at both the Bangsar Village HQ and the Centrepoint Branch in Bandar Utama. iCamp™ (for kids aged 6-14) offers one full-day or five half-days (Monday to Friday) of hands-on projects using the latest technology, allowing children to explore, invent and create.
